Official greeter

The club has many visitors and new members who invariably end up wandering into club meeting and looking for someone to tell them what is going on and how they can be involved or find out what they are looking for. In most cases, these folks are left to wander around without direction, or they end up asking questions of those members who are already involved with some essential club function. To address that issue, we need an "official host" for the club meetings who would stand near the door and meet/greet visitors and provide them with an overview of the club and the purpose of the meetings. Giving them a copy of the club handout with the pertinent information would be one way to share that information in a minimum amount of time. This person should ideally be one who has been member for a while and who knows how to explain the club. Wearing a badge identifying the host would also be of great benefit. If you can help with this, please see Jonathon to volunteer.

Annual Christmas party

Our Christmas party begins at 6:00 PM at the Corbin Senior Activity Center, 827 W. Cleveland.

Be sure to invite your wife, husband or friend to the party. Your donation to the Food Bank is your ticket to the party. Suggestions for the gifts to the Food Bank are canned goods such as meats, fish or vegetables (no home canned), peanut butter, sugar, flour, dried fruits, packages of macaroni, noodles, spaghetti, dry beans, split peas, rolled oats or canned soups. If you have not already signed up to bring something specific, either bring one of your favorite dishes or plan to donate five dollars for the punch. It is necessary that you bring your own serving dishes and utensils.

VAT Coordinator needed

John Hill is looking for someone to relieve him as the coordinator of the Fall/Spring Visual Arts Tour. This is an activity that appeals primarily to print makers, as the exhibit we sponsor for this event consists of print displays. But, the exposure the club gets in the community gives the event a much broader appeal to every kind of photography. We have gotten new members in the club from this event and it would be well worth any effort you could contribute to the continuation of this activity. This would require being available to contact and meet with the Spokane Arts Commission on issues of space and timing of the event, as well as arranging for prints for the display, and helpers to mount/staff the display. Will you help? Please contact John Hill for details.

Volunteers to provide refreshments needed

The club is attempting to establish a volunteer list for providing refreshments for the club meetings and the annual Christmas party. Barbara Kiver is working on this project and is accepting volunteers for providing the monthly goodies and for the refreshments for the Christmas party. If you have not signed up, please see her and share your talent with goodies. If you do not see one list or the other, ask her for it. We would really like the goodies!

Welcome new members

The Spokane Camera Club is growing. The following people have joined recently: Sean Anderson, Edie Linane, Tony Hollobon, Mark Harry, Tony Horpel, and Mort Shecter. We welcome each of you and hope that you will benefit from your participation in the club.
