Field trips offered

Kelly Courtright, MS and Michael Sweeney, BS will lead a field trip to the BLM's proposed Sprague Lake Geological Heritage Site. The site is composed of numerous unique geologic features formed when massive basalt flows were dissected by catastrophic Ice Age floods.

Where: Approximately one mile south of Sprague, Washington. When: Saturday, September 29th, 2001 (meet at the Spokane BLM office at 8:00 am and caravan to the site – Office Address: 1103 N. Fancher). Hiking boots recommended. Presentation is free and open to the public.

Folks who decide to go (it's free) should E-mail Dale W. Avery, davery26@home.com, also telling him whether they have a high ground clearance vehicle and are willing to drive.

The ICE AGE FLOODS INSTITUTE invites our photographers to join them for a full day Field Trip on October 20. Gene Kiver and Dale Stradling, retired EWU geologist/geography professors will lead two busloads through giant current dunes along the Great Missoula Flood path, over loess islands, to Williams Plunge Pool, into a flood bar, viewing the maximum flood heights of the Great Missoula Flood at Dishman Hills, and Sister City Photographic Exhibition sponsored by the Spokane Camera Club

TIME: OCTOBER 5TH, FRIDAY 5:00 PM TO 9:00 PM.
OCTOBER 6TH, SATURDAY AND OCTOBER 7TH, SUNDAY 10:00 AM TO 5 PM.

This photographic exhibition is in honor of 40 years of sister city affiliation. In conjunction with the Visual Arts Tour, the two organizations, the Nishinomiya Photo-
Arts Association (NPAA) and the Spokane Camera Club (SCC) will come together in a unique combined photographic exhibition.

Thirty-seven large color photographs from NPAA and thirty large color photographs from the Spokane Camera Club that were exhibited in May at the Nishinomiya Goodwill Photo Exhibit will be featured in the exhibition, located at 1017 W. 1st Avenue. The exhibition opens on October 5th at 5:00 pm through 9:00 pm and will continue on the following Saturday and Sunday from 10:00 am until 5:00 pm. Friday evenings's events will include a mayoral proclamation presentation to Nishinomiya PAA representatives, Mr. Shiro Tanaka, a member of the NPAA Board of Directors and Chair person for the Nishinomiya Goodwill Photo Exhibition, and Mr. Haruhiro Shimeda, vice president of the Nishinomiya Photo-Arts Association. Mr Tanaka will bring a message to Mayor John Powers from NPAA president Mr. Minoru Nagasaki and Nishinomiya Mayor Mr. Yamada commemorating 40 years of sister city affiliation.

The Spokane Camera Club, organized in 1938, is dedicated to the enhancement of an individual's photographic skills, regardless of skill level. The Nishinomiya Photo-Arts Association represents only the most ending at the Latah Creek sandbar (which is also an earthquake fault line).

Registration forms are available from SCC, SVCC, and P.S.A. Field Trip Chairs. Charges for non-members of IAFI, including bus transportation, lunch at Turnbull and refreshments is $40, 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Registration should be received by October 12.

P.S.A. Field Trip to Walla Walla, October 26-28, joint ventured with and led by the Blue Mountain Camera Club. The itinerary for Fall Festival of Feathers and Foliage is being finalized by our banana belt colleagues.

Call Viola Garrison, (509) 238-6530 now, or Otto Stevens (509) 327-8954 after October 1 for more information. Spokane Camera Club, Spokane Valley Camera Club, and guests are all welcome to join us.

Invitational Slide Competition

The Northwest Council of Camera Clubs has invited the Spokane Camera club to participate in the Third Invitational Slide Competition. This is a chance for us to see how we score against other clubs around the US and the world.

We are to enter a total of ten slides. Slides need the maker's name and address on each with a mark in the lower left hand corner.

Those interested need to get your entries to Bill McKinney no later than October 19, 2001.

skilled (38 members) of Nishinomiya photographers who have competed in local photograph competitions and accumulated enough points to reach the level of 'High Award of the Nishinomiya City arts Contest'. Only then are they admitted to the NPAA, which was established in 1949. Spokane Camera Club president, Bill McKinney and other SCC members will be at the reception Friday evening to honor our sister city's photographic envoys and their photographic art work.

After the exhibition the photographs from Nishinomiya will remain as a gift to our community.
